It was amazing -- and gratifying - to see how people reacted to the first TV Theme Song book. Obviously I'm not the only one who remembers these "modern folk songs" fondly; in fact, this volume exists today because people insisted on more. Specifically, the most frequently requested additional themes were (can you guess?): Rawhide, Gilligan's Island, Patty Duke, and Sugarfoot (which surprised me). But everyone seems to have a special favorite, i hope yours is included. If not, well.., there's always next time! Have fun and sing out loud!
