Paula Vaughan is warm and gracious lady who still surrounds herself with many of the wonderful things she remembers from her Mississippi childhood. Her west Tennessee home has a rambling front Porch adorned with bright potted flowers -- the perfect spot for quiet conversation. Inside, her beautiful quilts are displayed everywhere imaginable, and her kitchen is a cozy haven, featuring a fireplace and a big trestle table.

It's in her airy second-story studio that Paula spins her magic with colorful quilts wonderful antiques and her precious memories. When she isn't working there, she may be found combing local antique shops or traveling with her husband in the Great Smoky Mountains, in search of more delightful treasures from yesteryear.
