TRANS/SEX is the first photography book to deal frankly and artistically with the taboo subject of trans-gender sex: Italy's foremost erotic photographer and author of CINEMA HARD, Vittoria Perzan, has revisited the porn movie film set to create a searing photo essay of men and women making love with 'pre-op' transsexuals, breaking through all previous barriers of erotic publishing.

Perzan's explicit images – sometimes haunting and sensual, sometimes raw and uncompromising – capture a world that is compelling, bizarre and often shatteringly erotic.

With a moving text by genderchange author Imogen Hay, TRANS/SEX gives the reader an unprecedented view of how the 'third sex' make love, and cannot fail to add to his or her comprehension of the human sexual condition.
