Lake Hellandgone, Vis. Welcome to the wonderful world of the Scandinavians, an enchanted people whose history is filled with romantic tales of bold Vikings and pagan gods.., of warriors whose exploits have been preserved in sagas passed on through the ages.

Now, in the late Twentieth Century, we have millions of Viking descendants named Olson, Johnson and Hanson, and all sorts of Nordic flavored names that indicate a connection with the Vikings of old who fascinated the world with their daring deeds.

Today's Vikings are more likely to become merchants and lawyers.., or fellows like Hjalmer Tungsвик, president of the Sons of Norway chapter out here in Lake Hellandgone, which is located a quarter mile south of Resume Speed, between Coon Valley and Mount Illoreb. Out here we have Norwegians "thicker than flies around a crockful of Gammelost."

A few Swedes got in after World War One, but we let them in the Sons of Norway irregardless. They get
