"Judith Joy Ross makes photographs so artlessly that they often require repeated viewings before the art becomes apparent. More than any other living photographer, she resembles Walker Evans in her ability to memorialize individual character in the plainest of American faces and bodies...By never promising more than she can photograph, her pictures convince us that we are seeing real people at a moment in history. Her use of an 8-by-10 camera and of a process known as printing-out paper prints (which needs no enlarger, favored by...Atget) produces highly defined negatives and prints with a wide range of gray tones."

评论

Judith_Joy_Ross算当代摄影家。她拍8x10黑白人像。拍得很好。这本是MoMa出的，软皮，意大利印刷。书中结尾处特地强调她的这些照片是通过接触印象实现的。

Judith Joy Ross 8-by-10 soft portraits 作者的反战题材二册，Steidl出版。
