Collector cars with their original parts, paint, upholstery, trim intact are the rarest of all collector cars, a vanishing breed and immensely valuable! These are the survivors that collectors call 'time capsule cars', ones that capture the period they were built in and still retain their originality. Pictured and profiled in all their glory, survivor cars are the highlights of the car collector world, the stars of any prestigious car auction. From a 1908 Mora, a 1910 Sears to later favorites like the BMW 2002, Datsun Z cars they are shown here with all their original features, fittings, paintwork, upholstery, engines, in shot after loving shot bound to appeal to any car lover.
