The India Policy Forum (IPF) is a new annual publication dedicated to research on the contemporary Indian economy. It provides a forum for addressing the scope, speed, and desirability of economic reforms within India and their fundamental impacts on the country's social and economic welfare. The IPF aims to nurture a global network of scholars interested in India's economic transformation. A joint publication of the National Council of Applied Economic Research in India and the Brookings Institution in the United States, the IPF provides a bridge between researchers in India and abroad. This inaugural issue contains highlights from a conference held in New Delhi in March 2004. Topics include: * India's Trade Reform: Progress, Impact, and Future Strategy * Should a U.S.-India Free Trade Agreement Be Part of India's Trade Strategy? * Foreign Inflows and Macroeconomic Policy in India * India's Experience with the Implementation of a Pegged Exchange Rate * The Challenges for Capital Account Convertibility in India * Banking Reform in India
