THE new novel by the best-selling author of Come Pour The Wine and Portraits, No Time For Tears is a sweeping, unforgettable saga spanning three generations and three continents, the story of the passionate and courageous Chavala Landau, a girl who survived abrupt tragedy to become prematurely the matriarch of her family, triumphing over all the heartbreak that turn-of-the-century Russia could perpetrate, making her way to Palestine with a pioneering people, then later to New York and the tumultuous world of its diamond center.

Through wars, passionate involvements, tragedy and triumph, Chavala was able at last to give the gift of longed-for freedom to her family, to whose survival she dedicated a lifetime.

No Time For Tears is the magnificent, enthralling new novel awaited by Cynthia Freeman's millions of readers.
