Emma-Jean is experiencing something new and unsettling, but not entirely unpleasant. It's a fluttering in her heart when she imagines herself asking Will to the seventh-grade dance. Her best friend Colleen is worried that Will might laugh if Emma-Jean invites him. After all, Emma-Jean is a "different" kind of girl—certainly different from queen-bee Laura, who has always made it clear that Will is "hers." Maybe Colleen can distract Emma-Jean from this risky plan by recruiting her for a top-secret investigation. You see, Colleen has an anonymous admirer, and if Emma-Jean can help her figure out who he is, then "Colleen" could ask "him" to the dance. Even more endearing and genuine than its predecessor, this companion to the award-winning "Emma-Jean Lazarus Fell Out of a Tree" steals your heart and inspires a smile that lasts as long as the novel itself. . . and longer.
