This little boy likes fast food too much!

Benny loved burgers. “You’ ll turn into a burger one day,” warned his mother. And sure enough, he did! And he had to run away quickly from a hungry dog... and into a field of angry cows. “Do you know what burgers are made of?” they ask. “Us!” On and on, Benny is chased by a growing mob of hungry dogs and boys (and angry cows). Luckily his mother catches up just before they sell parts of the “biggest burger ever,” and stops them eating her son. She feeds him vegetables and fruits, and he is careful to eat them all up to prevent it ever happening to him again.- From the Hardcover edition.
