This is an ambitious, meticulous examination of how U.S. foreign policy since the 1960s has led to partial or total cover-ups of past domestic criminal acts, including, perhaps, the catastrophe of 9/11. Peter Dale Scott, whose previous books have investigated CIA involvement in southeast Asia, the drug wars, and the Kennedy assassination, here probes how the policies of presidents since Nixon have augmented the tangled bases for the 2001 terrorist attack. Scott shows how America's expansion into the world since World War II has led to momentous secret decision making at high levels. He demonstrates how these decisions by small cliques are responsive to the agendas of private wealth at the expense of the public, of the democratic state, and of civil society. He shows how, in implementing these agendas, U.S. intelligence agencies have become involved with terrorist groups they once backed and helped create, including al Qaeda.

T.罗斯福曾说过：We hold it a prime duty of the people to free our government from the control of money.可是在通往9/11的路上我们不难发觉the growth of wealth burnt down this public state and violated the social contract between the people and the gov't.
全书只有300页不到，但每一页都是精华和细节。从47年NSC-Act的通过到双子楼的被夷为平地，从70年代的水门案80年代里根的Iran-Contra丑闻，从民权社会到充满铜臭的deep state politics，美国人是应该醒醒了。
