This volume, which continues the textual discussions section of the author's "Euripidea" (Brill, 1994), discusses those passages in Euripides' "Heraclidae, Hippolytus, Andromache, Hecuba, Supplices, Electra, Heracles," and "Troades" - the plays of the author's Loeb Euripides, volumes Two and Three - where text or translation was in need of explanation or justification. A large number of new conjectures are proposed and some forgotten conjectures argued for.
