Choosing honor over love, Preston Flynn leaves Forth Worth in an attempt to distance himself from Anna Archer, the wife of the doctor who saved his life. But San Antonio offers its own brand of trouble in the form of Kathleen Hannigan, a tough, out-spoken cattle woman who ramrods her invalid father's ranch. Kathleen considered all men weak and inept. But after she meets Marshal Preston Flynn she realizes that he is an entirely different breed of man and resents every extraordinary quality he possesses, from his flawless reputation to his handsome features and breathtaking blue eyes, deciding that no man had the right to look the way he did. They immediately locked horns.
