"Tater, I have something to tell you..." Thus begins "The Four Days," the sequel to Big Adam's previous novel "My Friend Tater" and chronicles the personal holocaustic suffering he endured in the days following the death of the man he called 'Dad', his grandfather. Adam has just returned to Faulkner University in Alabama following the funeral for his grandfather back home in North Carolina. Soon after his family drops him off, Adam descends into a perilous nightmare filled with pain, grief, and torture. His vivid and heartfelt memories of Grandpa clash with the misery of waking up each day for the rest of his life knowing Grandpa is gone. His friend Tater comes to his side and through Adam's tears of loss and grief, he sees that something else happened to Adam while he was at home, something so cruel and vicious it drives Adam near the point of madness.
