This is a new chunky board book re-telling the beloved fairytale for young children. After a naughty little girl called Goldilocks sneaks into the bears' house when they are out and eats their porridge, breaks their furniture and sleeps in their beds, she certainly gets a surprise when they arrive home! Illustrated with the colourful handmade models of Jo Litchfield, this book comes with robust tabs to help children locate their favourite scenes. It is perfect for reading to young children, or for children who are just beginning to read to tackle alone.
