Daughter, there may yet be a happy escape from present troubles for me and thee; my son, thy husband, may yet arrive. So calm thyself, and wipe those tears from thy children's eyes, and soothe them with soft words, inventing a tale to delude them, piteous though such fraud be. Yea, for men's misfortunes oft-times flag, and the stormy wind doth not always blow so strong, nor are the prosperous ever so; for all things change, making way for each other.
