1885. Tolstoy is considered one of the greatest of all novelists. His collected works number 90 and critics regard War and Peace and Anna Karenina as his two masterpieces. Following the publication of Anna Karenina Tolstoy's life had undergone a complete change. He entirely devoted himself to Christ's teaching. In What I Believe Tolstoy contrasts the teachings of Jesus to the dogma and practices of the Orthodox Church. See other titles by this author available from Kessinger Publishing.
