KiKi, The Crazy Calico Cat is both fact and fiction. Is that considered faction or friction? Some facts may seem like fiction, and some fictitious episodes may seem like facts. Some names have been changed to protect the guilty. Nana, leery of cats, agrees to keep KiKi. This crazy cat attracts trouble in the backyard, in the grocery store, at the veterinarian's, in the aquarium, on the airplane, and wherever she goes. Showing the habits and characteristics of cats, she takes Nana on a wild ride Anyone who has taken care of their children's pets will identify with Nana. Cat lovers will enjoy KiKi's great personality, and children will laugh about her adventures. At times the world may seem to be mad and out of control, but I thank God for the healing gift of laughter

Jennean Hise was raised in New Mexico, graduated from Abilene Christian University with a Bachelor of Science in Home Economics and received her Master of Arts in Religion from Pepperdine University. She now resides in Lubbock, Texas. She spent 42 years with her husband, Bobby, in Youth Ministry, and enjoyed a career in teaching and school administration.
