Pink Shorts will take you on a sensual journey with thirteen women who stretch the boundaries of their everyday lives. These women from all walks of life will reveal their secrets to you as you imagine your way through their stories. This vivid depiction of the mind's deepest desires will serve up a tastefully written dish of erotica that will encourage you to embrace the woman in you. Whether you have lost the woman in you or struggling to restrain her, you will find that you are not alone. An accountant, a hairstylist, a kindergarten teacher, a DJ, and a flight attendant were just a few of the ladies who saw themselves in Pink Shorts. Don't worry, if you see yourself in Pink Shorts, it will be our little secret.
