A handsome new calendar, "Decoys" is the consummate gift for outdoorsmen and collectors, exhibiting a year of rare and beautifully carved antique decoys. Representing regions across North America-eiders from New England, a green-winged teal from Michigan, Chesapeake Bay brants and mallards, plovers from the Pacific Northwest, canvasbacks from the marshes of Louisiana-these are the finest examples of a quintessential American folk art, every one a true "floating sculpture." Each decoy is photographed up close and in rich detail, and is accompanied by in-depth information about provenance, the artist, and what makes it so distinctive and beautiful.
