In the photograph, Aunt Donna is very, very pregnant. My mother is not. I look up at my mom and she is crying-silently, with her hand over her mouth. After Emily's aunt dies, Emily learns that everything she has always believed is a lie, and her world crumbles. Forced to face the fact that her mother is not who she thought she was, Emily tries to find the truth about her past and make sense of her future. Turning to graffiti and vandalism as a way to deal with her anger, she comes to realize that there is more to a family than shared DNA. Sarah Harvey is an editor and the author of Puppies on Board, a picturebook. Bull's Eye is her first Soundings novel and was written between Ping-Pong games.
