A rare, early collection from John Wyndham. True to the Wyndham style, these stories are varied in genre, quirky and the humour is often dry. The first story ("Jizzle") concerns a circus monkey who can accurately draw what she sees. "A Present From Brunswick" is like a warped version of the Pied Piper. Other stories involve heaven, hell, living one's life over again, meeting one's future self, and nurturing pet dragons. There are 15 in all.
