Siblings live in their own special place, a place of joy and bickering, devotion and rivalry, a place whose only currency is Truth. No euphemisms, no equivocations, no beating around the bush. Celebrating this unique relationship is YOU STINK! I LOVE YOU, a warm and wise book for brothers and sisters of all ages, and their often bewildered parents. Stuart Hample, who has proven his gift for getting kids to open up in CHILDREN'S LETTERS TO GOD and other books that together have 1.8 million copies in print, eavesdrops on siblings to discover the universal condition of being a brother or a sister. A compilation of short letters from kids ages 7-13, illustrated throughout with the author's irrepressible drawings, YOU STINK! I LOVE YOU presents brothers and sisters telling it just the way it is.
