The 'edges' that photographer Harry Gruyaert, a member of the preeminent Magnum photo-documentary group, explores in this incredibly lush, full-color book, are the oceans, seas and rivers where humans meet the edge and the water begins. This unusual, oversized volume, which opens from the bottom up, takes the reader to Israel's Dead Sea, the Mali River in Niger, the North Sea of Iceland, South Korea and Biarritz, as Gruyaert's sensitive photos record the subtle chromatic vibrations of the edges of the Orient and the Occident. This beautifully produced photographic 'manifesto' reveals the profoundly poetic character of Gruyaert's work, the sensual elegance of his faultless compositions. An exciting book.
