There's something astonishing and awing about a cool event. All too often, we think such parties are unattainable, too expensive or not for the likes of ordinary people. Lifestyle expert and experienced hostess Stephanie von Pfuel seeks to de-mystify entertaining with creative and innovative decoration ideas and easy to cook recipes. Working closely with Klaus-Peter Kofler, the head of one of Europe's leading catering companies and Germany's Caterer of the Year, she has written an easy-to-use guide for giving the perfect dinner or event up to ten people. Packed with ideas for themed dinner parties to suit every occasion, along with suggestions for accompanying table settings and decor, and carefully chosen recipes that are affordable and easy to prepare, this copiously illustrated book is sure to help you spoil and delight your guests!
