Caduceus 21 is the future of health care. Few people know its balance sheet is fueled by a hidden trade in human organs. Only one person suspects where the organs are coming from. But Dr. Nguyen-Anh Dupree can't prove his dark suspicions without help. Enter Maggie Sepulveda, a hard-charging investment banker at Marx Dillon & Neil. She is about to land the deal of her career, financing the expansion of Caduceus 21; but the more she learns about her new client, the more her elation turns to fear. Soon Dupree and Maggie are drawn together, running for their lives as they try to expose the shocking truth Caduceus 21 had hoped to keep secret forever--a secret nothing short of global murder....
