[written in 1904 at the request of Mr William Butler Yeats as a patriotic contribution to the Repertory of the Irish Literary Theatre] when we cease to do, we cease to live
That english sentiment is not that much different from irish sentiment. But that is how they are destined to live

书评

Nora would wait until she died of old age sooner than ask my intentions or condescend to hint at the possibility of my having any. …if I had to choose between wounding that delicacy in her and hitting her in the face, I'd hit her in the face without a mo...
