About the practices and politics of place and identity formation - the slippery ways in which who we are becomes wrapped up with where we are - this book exposes the relations of place to power. It links everyday aspects of place experience to the social theories of Deleuze and Bourdieu in a very readable manner. This is a book that takes the social critique of built form another step through detailed fieldwork and analysis in particular case studies. Through a broad range of case studies from nationalist monuments and new urbanist suburbs to urban laneways and avant garde interiors, questions are explored such as: What is neighborhood character? How do squatter settlements work and does it matter what they look like? Can architecture liberate? How do monuments and public spaces shape or stabilize national identity?

这本作为场所理论价值很高，从场所的定义到理论的讨论和发展再到结合具体例子说明空间模式。可能是研究“Place”这个词的必读了吧。根据这本再延伸出去看它的reference也很有帮助，我因此看了很多相关的哲学理论，因为他老提到些康德、海德格尔的。“Becoming Places is about the practices and politics of place and identity formation.” "all places are in a state of continuous change."
