TV regular by age six; the family breadwinner by age ten; a national recording artist by age eleven; a Vegas headliner at age twelve; a rock 'n' roll sensation by age fifteen; and the largest-selling female performer in the world before she reached the age of twenty-one...here's the real story of a true American phenomenon-Brenda Lee. No one said it better than John Lennon, who declared that Brenda Lee 'has the greatest rock and roll voice of them all.'
