"Directly in front of him, leaves rustled and branches parted. Tommy's blood ran cold. What was staring back at him didn't look like an animal. It didn't look human either." Junior Canadian Ranger Tommy Toner has a terrible secret. During the annual JCR summer camp in Whitehorse, Yukon Territory, he plays a prank which has unexpected and destructive results. Ashamed and afraid of what people will think, he keeps quiet, even though the guilt eats away at him. Tommy and his old friends Colly and Jaz team up to take part in a JCR competition at camp. They decide to search on horseback for the legendary Bushman, a Sasquatch-like creature who has been sighted near Whitehorse. But is the Bushman real or is he simply a terrifying creature of myth and legend? What Tommy and his friends discover puts all their lives in danger, and only the truth can save them. Anita Daher's writing reflects the places she's been blessed to spend time. Earlier thrillers for young readers are "Flight from Big Tangle, Flight from Bear Canyon, Racing for Diamonds" and "Poachers in the Pingos." She has also written "Two Foot Punch," a sports thriller about free-running. Anita lives in Winnipeg, Manitoba, with her family, a farty old basset hound and two saucy young horses.
