Werewolves Jason and Rose Barnett have tried to put the past behind them, but Jason's strange dreams prove true and his dangerous obsession uncovers a shocking revelation that may destroy them]]once and for all. Jason and Rose Barnett believed hunter Simon Connor to be dead and gone. But Jason continues to have strange dreams, which reveal something that could destroy the Paranormal Research and Development Institute and tear relationships apart. Jason becomes a vigilante, fueled by his growing psychic powers that tell him somethingor someoneis still out there. Rose, no longer able to stand by while her mate destroys their lives, begins her own struggle to save what little relationship they have left, before it's too late. Then the unthinkable happens. A stunning eye-opener and an unexpected attack once again threaten their existence, and the rift between Jason and Rose becomes irreparable as their tumultuous past once again surfaces and their future becomes increasingly bleak.
