Dating a White man was never an option for Lacie Adams - until she meets her new boss, Anthony (Tony) Douglas. Determined to ignore her attraction for him, she starts to date Joseph Taylor who is a potential client and ironically a good friend of Tony's. Is she dating Joe because of his color or because of her fear of being in an interracial relationship with Tony? There has always been that invisible line that blacks and whites have been reluctant to cross because of fear and the reaction from family, friends, and the society. The question is: Will Lacie have the courage to cross The Color Line?
