Help your child understand the international language of emotion with this useful English and Language learning book. It teaches children vocabulary words for emotions, and even suggests constructive ways to deal with some of their negative feelings. The brightly illustrated boys and girls express a variety of emotions and tell how they react. Your child will easily relate to the everyday situations depicted on the pages. A pronunciation guide at the back of the book makes it easy for children to practice saying all of the new words they've learned. Written by Gladys Rosa-Mendoza and illustrated by Dana Regan.
