A gifted storyteller, Patricia Lorenz shares funny anecdotes about her own family: wayward pets, early-morning paper routes, mail-order gifts and more. She shares her secret for turning negatives into positives and provides real-life examples about becoming happier and more fulfilled. This book is sure to grab each reader's funny bone and shake her out of the rut of wrong priorities, self-pity and perfectionism! Combining common sense with good humour and a generous heart, Patricia Lorenz will inspire readers to a life that bubbles with creative solutions and contagious joy.
