Quests form an integral part of Runequest, and every hero and villain can expect to undertake many throughout their career. From a simple quest of rescuing a maiden from a band of brigands to one that takes the heroes from one end of a continent to another, all are important for helping to define a characters career. This hardback book is an invaluable resource for any games master as it will aid them in working up quests of their own as well as detailing in depth a number of ready-to-play quests that can be used immediately.
