Known for her profound insight and compassion, Daehaeng Sunim has impeccable credentials as a Zen master, having spent long years of training in the mountains of Korea before she began to teach. Though steeped in the tradition, she has a refreshing approach: No River to Cross avoids the intellectual trappings of many Buddhist books, choosing instead to get personal. It’s disarmingly simple, yet remarkably profound, pointing the reader again and again to his or her True Nature” the enlightenment that is always within.
