In the remote and timeless hamlet of Callow, nothing is what it seems . As villagers go about their daily routine, an ancient and bloodthirsty evil lurks beneath this pristine village. When people are murdered under unusual and gruesome circumstances, Jack Goodfellow comes back to his hometown of Callow to investigate the death of his friend and ex-lover. As Jack begins his investigation, he uncovers secrets about his town, his family and his life that lead him into horrifying danger…

…secrets that will change his life forever.

This definitive tale of horror from Dan Abnett (Guardians of the Galaxy), John Tomlinson (2000 AD) and Steve White (Rogue Trooper) returns for a whole new generation, in color for the first time, featuring over 60 previously uncollected pages.
