These magical photographs of ordinary land- and waterscapes all share a mysterious quality of presence that calls into question any distinction we might make between ourselves and the natural world. They thus represent the renowned nature photographer-Zen master's teaching on the interconnectedness of all things. The sixty-one astonishingly beautiful color images are accompanied by John Daido Loori's commentary on a text by the most famous of all historic Zen masters, Eihei

Dogen (1200–1253). The photographs and commentary go together to make up a striking teaching on the wisdom of the world around us.
