"The Great Starvation Experiment "is wide-ranging, weaving progress in the war into the day-to-day suffering of the hungry volunteers." --Saint Paul" Pioneer Press"
"Fascinating . . ." --Minneapolis" Star Tribune" Near the end of World War II, thirty-six conscientious objectors volunteered to be systematically starved for renowned scientist Ancel Keys's study at the University of Minnesota in the basement of Memorial Stadium. Aimed to benefit relief efforts in war-ravaged Europe and Asia, the study sought the best way to rehabilitate starving citizens. Tucker captures a lost moment in American history--a time when stanch idealism and a deep willingness to sacrifice trumped even basic human needs. "Tucker provides a fascinating and moving history of the experiment, centering on the lives and experiences of the volunteers and the formidable obstacles they overcame. Tucker tells the story with verve and economy. . . . Keys, his experiment and his 36 starving men form a compelling combination."
--Publishers Weekly" Todd Tucker is the author of several books, including Notre Dame vs. the Klan: How the Fighting Irish Defeated the Ku Klux Klan" (2004)." He served on the legendary Navy submarine USS Alabama" before moving to Valparaiso, Indiana.

作者不仅细致描述了整个实验的背景始终，还对experiment lead Ancel Keys和其他参与实验的若干被试者的生平进行了详细阐述。写non-fiction写得人物塑造比fiction还吸引人，语言风格也甚合我意，结尾也深得我心……继续去搜作者其他作品了XD
