Colfax dreams of being like his favorite hard-boiled detectives: tough, sexy and in control. In reality he's anything but, as his older sister, Kitty, never fails to point out. When a new client presents herself at their backyard detective agency, Colfax and his best friend, Monahan, are suddenly at odds. Will Wilson, new in town and lonely, choose Colfax or Monahan-or neither? What happened to her sister's blue whale? And her sister? But the biggest mystery of all is whether Colfax will ever tell Wilson how he feels. Don Trembath is the best-selling author of numerous books for juveniles and young adults including Hypnotized, Rooster, The Tuesday Cafe and the popular Black Belt Series. Don lives in Morinville, Alberta.
