The race is on It's the annual swim competition and it looks like the boy's team is going to lose to the girl's team again The boys think some girls stole their mascot, Lucky.

Without their mascot, the boys are convinced they will never win. Now, it's up to Sam and his friends to solve the mystery. If they can find lucky, maybe they can also solve the old mystery of Pirate's Point The Mystery of Pirate's Point is the first "Level 3 Book" in the We Both Read format, and our first real "Chapter Book." Featuring a smaller difference between the reading levels for the two readers, it is particularly perfect for struggling readers to buddy-read with another student, a parent or a tutor.
