At the Dawn of the Age of the Katsinas... A woman runs away in search of a Spirit Helper and never returns... An ancient village is swept into a shattering crime beyond reason, beyond belief... An old man must learn to walk the dark labyrinth of a murderer's mind to find him before he can strike again... A young war chief must enter the mesmerizing word of the insane if he is to save everything and everyone he loves... And, a scant moment ahead in geologic time, world-renowned Canadian physical anthropologist Dr. Maureen Cole finds herself excavating a mass grave in New Mexico filled with the brutalized bodies of women and children. From the internationally bestselling authors of "People of the Nightland " comes a novel of terrifying power about madness and murder eight hundred years ago.
