Reflecting current trends and research interests in the field - including the growing interest in religious diversity and global philosophy of religion - this broad and up to date introduction explores key writings from both the Western theistic tradition and from non-Western, non-theistic sources. The nine sections cover: Religious Diversity; The Nature and Attributes of God; Arguments for and Against the Existence of God; Science; Faith and Miracles; The Self and Human Condition; Religious Experience; The Problem of Evil and Suffering; and Death and the Afterlife. With section introductions, discussion questions, extensive bibliographies and a supporting website featuring additional material, it is the ideal reference tool to help clarify important points and reinforce understanding.
