New from a Theodor Seuss Geisel Award winner! Meet Bea and her imaginary canine friend, who has a few creative ideas for making mischief.

Wondering what to do next with her day, Bea heads out into the garden, where the sprinkler waters the lawn, the daisies sway in the warm breeze, and Bingo, a talking dog, asks her to play. "let's do something we're not supposed to do!" he cheerfully suggests. But will Bingo be as good at getting Bea out of trouble as he is at getting her INTO it? From the award-winning creator of the Zelda and Ivy series comes a picture book sure to captivate impish readers of all ages.
