"Little White Lies, Deep Dark Secrets: The Truth About Woman And Deception" is a provocative look at the reasons why women lie. It reveals how society doles out mixed messages that foster female lies, including: a woman who shoplifts, and has it 'down to a science'; a woman who tells her husband she is working late to be with her lover; a woman who lies about her children's achievements to her friends; a woman who pretends her husband is doing well when they are going broke; a woman who has covered up her husband's emotional abuse for years; a woman whose secret is her misery in being a stay-at-home mom in suburbia; a woman who lies about loving her partner, deciding it's better to stay than leave; and, many other secrets and deceptions.
