Even after surgery, Scotland Yard detective sergeant Jack Gibbons can't remember how he got shot. While his colleagues dig into his personal life, his best friend Philip Bethancourt focuses on his last case, a robbery of antique jewelry. Although Philip is a man of leisure, he makes a point of tagging along on Jack's more interesting cases. But this time is different: retracing his steps may put Philip in the same line of fire. Written in the tradition of Dorothy L. Sayers and with a fresh voice all her own, Cassandra Chan's third outing is sure to satisfy mystery fans.
