Katie has never ridden a horse. But when the class bully, Tiffany, challenges her to a riding contest Katie can't say no -- the winner gets a ring that the fairies need to complete their fairy task! Katie doesn't think she can possibly beat Tiffany. But a little fairy dust brings some toy ponies to life and Rosehip holds riding lessons in Katie's backyard. Soon Katie learns how to ride a horse -- and even how to jump! When the day of the contest arrives, it will be up to Kaiie to save the day -- but she's got the best friends ever there to root for her!
