Featuring contributions from more than 20 different authors, this volume combines the best of four different Bubba anthologies, chronicling an earth that has been taken over by rednecks, also known as "Bubbas." Unconventionally coupling science fiction with redneck jokes, it offers a ludicrous take on the future through fast-paced, provocative, and, above all, hilarious short stories that will appeal to die-hard science fiction fans as well as those just looking for laughs. From "The Quest for the Holy Grill" to "The Trailer Park Vampire Meets the Bubba Yumbie," this collection offers something outrageous for everyone.
