Fab Girls Guide to Getting Your Questions Answered "I'm the only girl in my class who has a chest, and I'm scared???we have to start changing for gym next month " "I used to have six close friends, but they all dumped me to turn popular. What do I do now?" "My friends are all boy-crazy. I don't even want a boyfriend but they won't leave me alone How do I make them stop?" "My mom and I fight all the time How can I get along with her? " When preteen girls have questions like these, they turn to a source they trust: Discovery Girls magazine's advice column, "Ask Ali." Ali receives hundreds of letters every month, but she can answer only a few in the magazine. So in this book, she tackles girls' most troublesome problems in a new collection of letters. With chapters on everything from friends and family to boys and school to body issues and more, Ali covers a wide range of topics with her always-empowering, straightforward approach. No matter what girls are going through, they'll find the answers to their problems here.
