Little Pip would love to play dodge-the-raindrop and puddle-splashing with Spike and Milly one rainy afternoon. But he's just too shy. "Perhaps, Pip thought, if I had something to give them, they would play with me."

Then Pip sees a rainbow. What a wonderful present that would be! But the rainbow is so far away. Maybe Spike and Milly can help him reach it...

This inspiring tale of friendship is made extra special by the magical sparkle on the rainbow throughout.
